

The Royce and Jane Reynolds Program in Church Leadership

APPLICATION

The Royce and Jane Reynolds Program in Church Leadership provides the opportunity for 24 select clergy leaders to complete a yearlong intensive program in leadership development. The Reynolds program is a joint venture between the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc. and the Center for Creative Leadership, an international nonprofit educational institution. Created out of a deep concern for the development of effective pastoral leaders for Christ's Church, the goal of the program is to assist strong pastors in becoming congregational leaders who develop a clear vision for the Church. Participants will be invited into a study of their leadership gifts and challenges and the impact of those gifts and challenges on the creation of congregational vision, its articulation and its fulfillment.

The generous gift of Royce and Jane Reynolds makes it possible to offer the Reynolds Program in Church Leadership to 24 United Methodist pastors from North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, North Georgia, Western North Carolina, and Florida at no cost except for travel expenses. The program absorbs the full cost of tuition, room and board, and sessions with the executive coaches. Because the program makes a significant financial investment in its participants, it is necessary for participants to make the following commitments:

- Attend all sessions in their entirety
 - Foundations for Leadership: Who Are You as a Leader?
August 15-18, 2022 at the Center for Creative Leadership, Greensboro, NC
 - Developing a Vision: What Does God Desire?
November 7-10, 2022 at Rizzo Conference Center, Chapel Hill, NC
 - Working the Plan: How Do We Lead Lasting Change?
February 6-9, 2023 at Rizzo Conference Center, Chapel Hill, NC
 - Mobilizing for the Future: Where Do You Go from Here?
May 1-3, 2023 at the Center for Creative Leadership, Greensboro, NC
- Complete between sessions reading and writing assignments and adherence to schedule of conversations with executive coach and peer learning group
- Commit to the mission of the United Methodist Church to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world
- Embrace new learning and feedback about personal leadership styles and strategic planning for the congregation
- Complete several assessment instruments for the Center for Creative Leadership that require response from both you and up to ten peers, supervisors, employees and colleagues
- Participate, as requested, in follow-up evaluation after the completion of the program
- Have five years of full-time local church experience beyond completion of educational requirements, have at least twenty years of service to the church left; and currently serving in a local church as pastor-in-charge and not moving to a new appointment in 2022.
- Provide proof of full vaccination against COVID-19.

Applications are reviewed by both the resident Bishop and the Reynolds Admission Committee. The Committee makes all final decisions on admission. Application materials must be received by both your resident Bishop and Caroline Cox at ccox@umfwno.org by 5/1/2022.
