

Reynolds Ministry Fund

Above: Open Arms Community in Winston-Salem

Have a great idea to engage your community? The Foundation is ready to support you.

Apply at umfivnc.org/churches/ministry-grants/

How do you measure success?

Success is measured in expansion of God's reign and in the transformation of individual lives beginning with making a commitment to Jesus Christ.

Proclaim the gospel, seek and welcome and gather persons into the community of the Body of Christ.

What happens after the grant?

We ask that you report back to us as we believe accountability is central to our faith journey. If you receive a grant, you may be asked about scheduling a site visit.

Lead persons to commit their lives to God through baptism and profession of faith in Jesus Christ.

Which requests are not eligible?

- Salary support
- Building projects (brick-and-mortar)
- Debt reduction
- Parish nursing
- Preschools

Nurture persons in Christian living through worship, the sacraments, spiritual disciplines, Christian study and other means of grace.

Questions? Reach out!

Annalee Allen
Director of Reynolds
Ministries & Programs

Send persons into the world to heal the sick, feed the hungry, care for the stranger, free the oppressed and develop social structures consistent with the Gospel.

Word on the Street, a church start/movement for people experiencing homelessness in Charlotte.

Niner United, campus ministry of UNC Charlotte

Little Free Pantry of Surry Community College

Camp Discovery, a summer camp experience led by First UMC Salisbury

Downtown Welcome Table at Haywood Street Congregation, an urban ministry in Asheville

Carolina Cross Connection, a ministry that connects teens to mission work

After-school tutoring program led by First UMC Hickory

Community Unity Project led by Cokesbury UMC in Charlotte